13.00183 Tentative Grading scale is :

less than	50	F	below 50
50	61.38	D	between 50 and mean - one standard deviation
61.38	74.38	C	mean -one standard deviation to mean
74.38	85.00	B	mean to mean + one standard deviation
85.00 and above		A	above mean + one standard deviation

the course.

NOTE: Although this scaling for grades is not final, this gives you some ideas about where you stand. If upir expected grade is F or even D, to successfully complete this course, please make sure you arrange some time with me and work out a study plan for the other exams and your homework. There is nothing embarassing about it, because I know you tried and something might have gone wrong. I can help you, but you have to motivate yourself and you must be committed to do it.
