

The new mean is sort of ok, although it is on low side. Please work well and improve in the next exam. As I promised, I will give you bonus points for very good improvement. I strongly urge all of you to get serious. Please come and see me.

Mean

s.e=

10.25616 Tentative Grading scale is :

less than 60	60 F	below 50
60	71.18 D	between 50 and mean - one standard deviation
71.18	81.43 C	mean -one standard deviation to mean
81.43	89.99 B	mean to mean + one standard deviation
90.00 and above	A	above mean + one standard deviation

the course.

NOTE: Although this scaling for grades is not final, this gives you some ideas about where you stand. If upir expected grade is F or even D, to successfully complete this course, please make sure you arrange some time with me and work out a study plan for the other exams and your homework. There is nothing embarassing about it, because I know you tried and something might have gone wrong. I can help you, but you have to motivate yourself and you must be committed to do it.
