

States with statistically insignificant estimates are omitted and bar colors denote the percents lost work because of disability as shown in the legend.